

Osteopathy Works Horsham Published by Suzanna Brown

Tip of the day. Remember to hydrate during this hot weather before and after exercise. Hydration not only provides the body with enough fluids to function during exercise but also helps to prevent injuries and illness. Water is the best way to rehydrate but sports drinks can be incorporated before, during and after exercise to maintain fluid balance. Happy exercising!